THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF TYLER, INC. SPONSORSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES (RESIDENT CANDIDATE) 2022-2023

As Active and Sustaining members of The Junior League of Tyler, Inc., it is our privilege and our responsibility to propose candidates who will uphold the standards of our organization. Please carefully consider the following:

CONCERNING YOUR CANDIDATE:

1. Is my candidate interested in volunteer work?
2. Will she benefit from volunteer training and utilize it?
3. Does she have the time and motivation to become involved?
4. Has she demonstrated dependability and a willingness to accept responsibility?
5. Does she meet the candidacy requirements as stated in Article IV, Section 2 of the Bylaws?

CONCERNING YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A SPONSOR OF A RESIDENT CANDIDATE:

1. Am I willing to be supportive during her provisional year by attending the following events?
 - a. Provisional Orientation - Monday, April 25, 2022 at 6:00 p.m., JLT Office
 - b. General Meeting – Tuesday, May 17, 2022, 7:00 p.m., Willow Brook Country Club
2. Do I meet the sponsorship requirements as stated in Article IV, Section 2, C and JLT Admissions Policy, Sections A and B of the Bylaws?
 - a. Any Active or Sustaining member may sponsor four (4) Resident prospective members and two (2) Non-Resident prospective members each year, serving as primary sponsor for only two (2) Resident and/or Non-Resident prospective members.
 - b. A sponsor group shall consist of four (4) Active or Sustaining members. For proposal of Resident prospective members, three (3) of the sponsors must be Active members as of April 1, 2022.
 - c. No more than two (2) of the sponsors may be related to the candidate by blood or marriage.
3. Am I willing to be supportive during her provisional year and throughout her League career?

Please be certain that each sponsor reads and understands the above information before signing the sponsorship form.
